ASKS ABOUT ROUTES

C. C. White, a drug and paint dealer of Greenfield, O., is considering locating in this city. In a letter to Col. D. K. Bellers, president of the Ocean-to-Ocean Highway association, on the 1st, he writes: "Will you be on an auto tour soon with Albuquerque or Santa Fe as his objective point and that if he sees an opening he will probably go into business in this city."

Mr. White asked the Colonels about routes. He said he wasn't thinking of moving so much as easy traveling and wanted the information now.

Colonel Sellers answered the letter today, suggesting alternate routes from Kansas City to the way of the Santa Fe trail along the railroad through Kansas to La Junta, Colo., to Trinidad, then over Raton Pass to Las Vegas, and so down to El Paso. He also mentioned the route to the Panhandle country to Amarillo, thence across part of Oklahoma and to Clovis or Tucumcari, New Mexico.

Colonel Sellers wrote the prospective settler that he would be delighted to meet him on his arrival in town and show him where he was to go to Albuquerque. The Whites will travel in a new four-passenger Buick.

Protected Animals have been causing Farmers Trouble. Great Fruit Crop.

Special Dispatch to Evening Herald

San Fe, N. M., May 9.—Deputy Game Warden Page B. Otero returned today from his visit to Rio Arriba county where he went to report on the shooting of beavers. Otero finds that the beavers through protection given them for a number of years have multiplied rapidly, and are now doing serious injury to fruit trees and also are building many dams in water courses. It is likely that there will be a continuous open season on the animals until their number is considerably reduced.
